2021 Authority to Sign Tax Return

IMPORTANT CHANGES TO SIGNATURE DOCUMENT

We understand that allowing another person to sign your completed tax return on your behalf can be more convenient and efficient, especially for those clients who work long hours or work away from home.

However due to regulations within the Australian Legal Environment, this is not appropriate without your express written consent.

Should you wish for another person to sign your Income Tax Return on your behalf, please consider the following statement, and sign it prior to your designated Agent* attending our office to prepare and/or lodge your return.

 Your “agent” can be anyone but most likely would be your next of kin, spouse, or parent (as your Accountants we cannot sign for you).

Unfortunately, this is not a matter in which we can exercise discretion – without this authority, we are unable to lodge your tax return with any signature other than your own.

I, _____, give my express authority for _____ to act as my “Agent” in the preparation and completion of my 2021 Individual Tax Return, and verify that all pertinent information regarding my income and expenses for the period concerned has been supplied in order to ensure that this return will be an accurate representation for that year.

I authorise Baggetta & Co to rely on the information supplied by the above “Agent” in the preparation of my 2021 Individual Tax Return and to lodge this document with the Australian Taxation office.
